

INTRODUCTION

NQ International Pte. Ltd. ("NQ International"), based in Singapore, offers strategic business development advice and solutions to organisations keen to establish or invest in Asia.

Specialising in Asian and Middle East markets, NQ International's current target sectors include multifamily businesses and financial services/investment groups who could benefit from the comprehensive range of wealth advisory and related financial skills available in Singapore, and leverage on the potential growth of the Asian markets.

NQ International will facilitate and ensure execution of the specific requirements of its clients, working closely with the clients and the various specialist product and service providers in the financial services industry.

SERVICES

"Failing to plan is planning to fail" - Alan Lakein

- Strategic advice and solutions for businesses and investment groups keen to establish in or expand into Asia:

This includes identifying, positioning and ensuring execution for domestic and cross border joint-ventures, acquisitions and investments, working with its clients at exploratory, transition and implementation levels.

- Wealth planning and advisory services for multi-family offices establishing in or expanding into Asia:

Targeting Asian and Middle East groups, NQ International offers customized, holistic wealth management solutions which are completely objective and practical. We do not manage funds, render tax advice or offer insurance and investment advice or products.

Working exclusively with "best of class" providers, NQ International's service is to expertly coordinate and evaluate the client's wealth advisory, financial and asset managers, and their recommendations. We ensure all parties remain focused on our client's overall wealth management goals and vision.

- Talent identification for wealth advisory services:

NQ International has alliances with wealth advisory executive search specialists to help enhance human capital within the wealth management industry. Together, we will identify, assess, mentor and position suitably qualified individuals with organisations and family offices.
